DAILY GAZETTE.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

—Mr. Devilwater, appropriately enough, keeps a liquor shop at Evanston, Ill.

—A shrewd Yankee has been introducing mowing machines of New England manufacture in Denmark.

—"Keep from intestine woe," sang the Pennsylvania Day poet at the Centennial. This is supposed to convey a positive warning against drinking any of the Schuylkill water.

—The Cincinnati Gas Company exhibits the wisdom of Davy Crockett's coon and has "come down" to $1.20 per thousand feet. Other gas companies would do well to succumb as gracefully.

—The extravagance of the San Francisco parvenues grows criminal. One of the speculators of the Golden City has bought another man's wife for $300,000. There are some men nearer East who would have sold him theirs for half the money.

—The indicative mood, present tense, of the verb to go, should now be rendered thus: I go to Philadelphia; you go to Philadelphia; he goes to Philadelphia; we go to Philadelphia; you go to Philadelphia; they all go to Philadelphia.—Buffalo Courier.

—Olive Logan's thoughts roll on awful subjects like this: "I still hold that at the great majority of festive gatherings in New York itself, the question as to whether one shall begin eating as soon as one is served, or wait till others are served before doing so, is very undecided in the minds of most persons."

—Here is another description of the personnel of Mr. Hayes from the New York Herald: "His voice is a clear, light baritone, the face is autumn, its abundant covering of hair being yellow, russet, brown and differing strangely in color both in itself and from the hair on top, which is tinged with grey."

—In a Methodist belfry up in Vermont a swarm of bees have started a hive and deposited fifty pounds of honey. The minister proposes next week to deliver a sermon on the text, "What is Sweeter than Honey," and at the close of the service will personate Samson by carrying the sweet treasure home with him.

—Alas! no more peaceful days for man. The women have gone into the insurance business. When a fascinating female agent enters an office and lays her hand upon a man's arm in that familiar, touching way, and talks policy, ten to one that he insures. Perhaps wives will hang around offices more than usual, too.

—The Washington Republican, describing an evening party in that city, says that "the young lady in whose honor the party was given was most tastefully attired in a rich blue silk and Secretary Sherman, handsomely decorated with jewelry." The interesting part of it is that the young lady in question was aged precisely three years.

—A curious divorce case has just been decided in London. The petitioner begged to be divorced from her husband on the ground that she was insane at the time of her marriage, being crazed with grief at the loss of a previous husband. Whilst in this prostrate condition a man of much humbler station induced her to marry him. The fact being established by the evidence the court granted the divorce.

—They all happened to meet one another at the corner. In silence, and with a gravity savoring of sadness, they simultaneously touched their hats and extended their hands. A move was made on a neighboring bar-room, and looking into one another's eyes, they drained, without a word, the last of the rosy. When it was asked who there were, the only response that came was, "We were not nominated."

—"I would not," said a Chicago gentleman to a Tribune reporter, in the course an of earnest conversation, "I would not accept a nomination for the Presidency if one were tendered me to-morrow. No man can understand how any one of fine feelings and delicate sensibilities can endure the rack and strain of merciless objurgation and calumny. Perhaps, next to that of umpire at a base ball match, no position is so thankless."

—Burlington Hawkeye: One of the junior clerks in Gov. Tilden's office said to a colleague the other day, "How can I hide the worn places in my coat sleeves?" "Ink 'em," replied the other promptly; "ink 'em, and ink 'em well." Her lover, who was passing, stopped and cuffed the boy's ears and ordered him to go to the cashier's desk and get his time. "Impudent rascal," muttered the pure old man, "talking about inconsequential things right under my nose. Won't have it, won't have it."

—Considerable anxiety and bustle were manifested at a dance uptown the other evening, when during the second figure of the lancers, a hollow spherical object, of various and uncertain size, was suddenly discovered on the floor in the centre of one of the sets. Nobody appeared to know what it was, or where it came from, but it was noticed that several young men snickered audibly as an attendant removed the offending obstacle, and that four young ladies left the room in hot haste the moment the dance concluded.

—In a recent essay Professor Fiske very forcibly remarks that "Deanthropomorphization is a progressive stripping off of the old idea of purpose and replacing it by the conception of physical agencies." And this is, of course, true in certain cases, as where the idiosyncratic solfeggio has effaceable relations with the diathesis of the hypochondrosus and is likely to produce sysscarcosis of the inferior hersillon. But even if deanthropomophation really is a progressive stripping off, we would like to ask Professor Fiske what he proposes to do when a boy has measles. Let him push his teeth into that if he can.

—The vine disease is spreading in France more rapidly than ever and defies all attempts at remedy. The Chamber of Commerce of Bordeaux has applied to the Government for assistance in devising measures for extirpating the disease, and states, in its application, that, in the Department of the Gironde, the phylloxera has assumed a character of much greater intensity and that, in consequence the price of land has fallen one half and in many vineyards the product of wine will not be one tenth of what it used to be. The Chamber has no specific to suggest, but simply asks that the Government use its means for getting and publishing the results of all experiments and investigations thus far made in search of a cure.

—Here is a picture of desolation from the Savannah News' obituary column of the 2d instant:

"Died in this city, of the prevailing epidemic, yellow fever, August 28, Edward Lee, aged 9 years and 10 months.

"September 15, Ina Florence, aged 13 years and 3 months.

"September 19, Mary Lillian, aged 4 years and 9 months, beloved children of Edward W. and Mary A. Drummond.

"Also, on the 27th of September, their father, E. W. Drummond, in the 39th year of his age, leaving a heart-broken wife and one son to mourn their loss. Thus in the short space of four weeks were a happy home and hearts made desolate by the removal of three lovely children; and scarce had their spirits taken flight ere their father was called to join them in their heavenly home. Thy will, O God, be done!"

—Mr. Ezekiel has finished his colossal statue of "Religious Liberty," a gift from the Jewish people to the National Government, and it will soon be formally presented in Washington. It is thus described in the Philadelphia Press: "The figure is a female; her right arm is outstretched, as a sign of shelter and protection to a youth, typifying Religion, who stands close by her side, holding in uplifted hand a cup containing the sacred fire. The left hand of America rests upon the Laws of the United States, which give religious liberty to all her sons. The expression of the face, which is turned toward the youth, is benign and sympathetic. Around the brow is a circlet of golden stars, representing the thirteen original States, while at the feet of the statue the American eagle, with its talons on the throat of the serpent of Intolerance, stands watchful, ready to sweep down upon any new foe that may menace the public."

Death of a Brother of Mr. Moody, the Evangelist.

CHICAGO, October 6.—Late this afternoon Mr. Moody received a dispatch announcing the sudden death of his youngest brother, Samuel Moody, who lived at Northfield, Mass., with his mother. After a meeting of ministers it was decided that Mayor Whittle should supply his place while he attended the funeral. The deceased was one of the converts of the revival in Northfield last summer, and has been an active Christian worker since that time.

Indignant Independents.

TERRE HAUTE, October 6.—At a large and enthusiastic mass meeting here tonight, resolutions charging Anson Walcott, formerly the Independent nominee for Governor, with having sold himself for Republican money, were adopted, and W. Harrington, the nominee in the place of Walcott, was endorsed.

Watching for the Stellar Wanderer.

DETROIT, October 6.—Prof. Watson publishes a card saying that Leverrier, of France, had announced that on the 16th of out on October 9th and 10th for the expected planet. The Professor asks all who have telescopes in the land to make observations at the times designated and report to him.

Strike at Scranton.

SCRANTON, PA., October 6.—One thousand workmen in the shops of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railway Company struck to-day in consequence of a reduction of ten per cent. in their wages.

NEWS FROM ABROAD.

Bashi-Bazouks Disgusted with Turkish Commanders.

PARTICULARS OF THE RECENT BATTLE IN CUBA.

TURKEY.

England's Ultimatum.

LONDON, October 6.—Sir Henry Elliott, at Constantinople, has been instructed to notify the Porte that unless the English proposals are unreservedly accepted, the British Government will withdraw all support to Turkey, and merely guarantee Constantinople against Russian occupation.

Disgusted Bashi-Bazouks.

LONDON, October 6.—A dispatch from Pesth states that a letter from Prisrend, Albania, says fifteen thousand Bashi-Bazouks have returned to that neighborhood from the Turkish army, because of disagreements with the Turkish commanders. They state that after the battle of September 1st they were on the point of crossing the Morava and entering Alexinatz, when they were stopped by the Turkish regular troops, who were ordered to shoot all who attempted to cross.

The Offensive Resumed by the Turks.

PESTH, October 6.—The Turks have again taken the offensive. Osman Pasha has left Saitschar and moved up the valley of the Timok in the direction of Kujazervats. The Turks have also collected sixteen battalions at Babenglava. This seems to indicate a turning movement in the direction of Bauja or Lukova. On October 3d the Turks forced passages of the Morava at three points. Their headquarters are now advanced to Srezovac.

RAGUSA, October 6.—The rear guard of Moukhtar Pasha's force, whilst returning towards Herzegovina, was attacked by insurgents and Montenegrins, and fell back on Gorica.

RUSSIAN CONFERENCE.

ST. PETERSBURG, October 6.—It is stated General Ignatieff, Russian Ambassador to Turkey, has been summoned by the Czar to Livadia, where General Sumarohoff, the Czar's aide-de-camp, whose mission has been signally successful, is also expected.

CUBA.

The Capture of Los Tunas.

HAVANA, October 5, VIA KEY WEST, October 6.—The following are additional particulars of the capture of Los Tunas by insurgents under Vicente Garcia. During the night of September 22d about five hundred insurgents, headed by Vicente Garcia, attacked Los Tunas on three sides. A portion of the Spanish troops at the place were surprised and made prisoners near the fort. The remainder were distributed over the Governor in various houses, while some citizens and volunteers fortified themselves in the court house. During the confusion attending the attack the Governor was assassinated by his own soldiers. Upon capturing the fort the insurgents turned its guns on the court house, disabling fifty-four men, after which they took possession of the place. Vicente Garcia then sent a message to the Spanish Governor in Holguin, notifying him that he had 240 Spanish prisoners and 105 wounded, who would receive proper attention if the Governor sent the necessary medical resources. After appraising everything he needed the insurgents left the place. This affair is briefly mentioned in the Diario, which ascribes the disaster to carelessness of the garrison or connivance of the inhabitants with the insurgents. Commenting on the event, it says: "It shall henceforth publish unfavorable as well as favorable news, as experience has shown that keeping back the former produces lamentable consequences."

The distress in the jurisdiction of Puerto Principe is increasing, and the people of the City of Puerto Principe talk again of its probable abandonment by the Spaniards. A general dead and public insubordination is said to prevail among the Spanish troops in consequence of the non-receipt of arrearages of pay. In consequence of a rigid censorship at this city, it is impossible to secure telegraphic confirmation or absence of intelligence of the above character.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Cotton Spinners Suspended.

DUNDEE, SCOTLAND, October 6.—George Schleselman and Kinnear & Fithie, spinners, have failed. The liabilities of the former are $150,000, and of the latter $45,000.

Bank Suspension.

LONDON, October 6.—The Industrial Bank of New Castle-on-Tyne has stopped payment. The liabilities are estimated at $500,000.

SPAIN.

Religious Toleration.

MADRID, October 6.—Some representative Protestants have consulted Martinez, a former Minister of Justice, concerning the interpretation of the toleration clause of the Constitution, and he has given an opinion favorable to the Protestant view. It is generally expected the Cortes will reassemble at the end of the present month.

WASHINGTON TOPICS.

Return of the President.

President and Mrs. Grant returned to Washington yesterday morning. The President was in his office after 10:30 A. M., and received a large number of Centennial visitors. No meeting of the Cabinet was held, as nearly all the members were out of town. Secretary Morrill and Postmaster General Tyner had a conference with the President in regard to various routine matters in their respective departments.

Another Call for 5-20 Bonds.

The thirty-sixth call of redemption of 5-20 bonds of 1865, May and November, provides for their payment on and after the 4th of January, 1877, upon which date interest will cease. The call is as follows:

Coupon bonds—$100, No. 12,401 to No. 17,000, both inclusive; $500, No. 19,001 to No. 22,100, both inclusive; $1,000, No. 46,851 to No. 53,300, both inclusive; total coupons, $3,000,000.

Registered bonds—$50, No. 51 to No. 200, both inclusive; $100, No. 1,651 to No. 3,450, both inclusive; $500, No. 1,811 to No. 2,750, both inclusive; $1,000, No. 5,751 to No. 10,000, both inclusive; $5,000, No. 2,901 to No. 4,150, both inclusive; $10,000, No. 3,901 to No. 5,150, both inclusive; total registered, $5,000,000; aggregate, $10,000,000.

Pardoned.

The President has pardoned Wm. J. Bodenhamer, who plead guilty of embezzling public money while Receiver of the Land Office at Springfield, Mo., and was sentenced to three years' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $15,000.

Turf Notes.

CINCINNATI, October 6.—First race, 2:36 class, won by Belle Moore; time 2:32, 2:34½, 2:35 and 2:35. Second race, mile heats won by Ilarus; time 2:25¼, 2:24 and 2:25¼. Third race, two mile dash; won by Bob Woolley; time 3:50. The unfinished race of yesterday was won in two straight heats by War Jig; time 1:47 and 1:45 1-2.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., October 6.—At Narragansett Park to-day the race for the 2:23 class was won by Lame, Honest Harry second, Thomas Jefferson third. Time 2:27, 2:26½, 2:27, 2:27, 2:28 and 2:30¼.

Failure of a Stock Speculator.

NEW YORK, October 6.—This morning H. A. Patterson notified the Stock Exchange that he had suspended. For a long time he has been one of the most active speculators at the Exchange, and a conspicuous seller of coal and other stocks. His outstanding contracts are variously estimated at from forty to sixty thousand shares. A large part of these were privately settled, and the remainder have been or will be closed by purchases under the rule.

Centennial Awards to Pittsburghers.

PHILADELPHIA, October 6.—The following additional awards, among others, have been announced by the judges: A. J. Nellis & Co., of Pittsburgh, iron tie for bagging cotton; Bissell & Co., Pittsburgh, patent railroad car heaters, elevated oven cooking range, and Peerless radiating shaking grate; Aladdin Lubricating Oil Works, Pittsburgh, petroleum products; and J. C. Anderson, Pittsburgh, sash balances.

The Railroad War.

NEW YORK, October 6.—Another meeting of the agents of the trunk lines has been called for next Wednesday to try to make an arrangement on Western business. The New York Central agents say they are not bound up by contracts running for six months, and can go into any arrangement. It is thought this meeting will end the fight.

Yellow Fever.

NEW YORK, October 6.—Hugh McShane, a late employe on the steamer Charleston, from Charleston, died in Brooklyn of yellow fever.

SAVANNAH, October 9.—The yellow fever interments to-day were nineteen.

THE COLORADO VICTORY.

The Legislature Overwhelmingly Republican.

DENVER, COL., October 6.—Returns are just received from Elbert county, which give a Republican majority of 70, a Republican gain over 1874 of 223, and Grand county gives a Republican majority of 45, a Republican gain over 1867. Deducting from the total Republican majority, which the official figures assure to be correct, all that has been claimed by the Democratic State Convention leaves the net Republican majority in the State 1,200. The Legislature will certainly be two-thirds Republican, and probably nearer three-fourths. All special reports designed to confute or throw discredit upon these dispatches are sent out for mischievous purposes.

The legislative ticket will show an aggregate majority of 2,500.

The total vote of the State is about 20,000, and the Republican gain 3,300 to 3,700.

The Senate will contain seventeen Republicans and nine Democrats, and the House thirty-five Republicans and fourteen Democrats.

This county elects the Republican State and county tickets by a majority of 400, and the legislative ticket by 600.

This is the first time that the straight Republican ticket has been elected in this county in ten years, and is a gain of 850 over the vote of 1874. The Republicans gain 550 in Denver City since the April election, when a Democratic Mayor was chosen.

Two counties only show small Democratic gains. The Democrats have had plenty of money—$20,000, it is said—from Tilden's "barl."

THE COURT RECORD.

A Complete Record of the Proceedings in the Courts Yesterday.

Supreme Court.

(Before Chief Justice Agnew and Justices Sharswood, Mercur, Gordon, Paxton and Woodward.)

The argument in the cases of Gregg and Houston vs. Directors of Security Trust Company, was continued by Acheson for defendents in error, and Archibald Blakely for plaintiffs in error.

Jones vs. Seely, certiorari to the Common Pleas No. 1. Argued by Barton for appellant and C. Fetterman, contra.

In re contested elections of Select Councilmen of the Tenth ward, Allegheny; certiorari to the Quarter Sessions Court. Argued by A. M. Watson for appellant and M. Acheson, contra.

Seely vs. City of Pittsburgh. Error to Common Pleas No. 2. Argued by Kirker & Woodward for plaintiff in error, Shiras contra.

Phillips & Mittensweys vs Allegheny Car and Transportation Company. Error to Common Pleas No. 1. Argued by Burgwin for plaintiff in error and H. H. McCormick, contra.

Criminal Court.

(Before Judge Ewing.)

In the case of the Commonwealth vs. W. C. McDonald, reported yesterday, the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

Commonwealth vs. Wm. Elliott and Jane Moffit, indicted for larceny. Not guilty.

Commonwealth vs. Fred. Opperman, indicted for aggravated assault and battery, on oath of Gustave Mompere. Verdict of guilty of assault and battery.

Desertion and surety cases will be heard to-day.

Court Brevities.

JOHN WARD, charged before U. S. Commissioner McCandless, with having in his possession with intent to pass money and advertising card, made in the similitude of a five dollar Treasury note, after a hearing yesterday was committed for trial.

THE returns from the several county offices as made to the Controller show gains and losses as follows: Gain in the sheriff's office, $61,217; Prothonotary's, $484.50; Recorder's, $67.92; Clerk of Courts, $64.09; Register's, $111.79. Total, $1,340.47. Loss in District Attorney's office, $121.38. Net gain for county, $1,219.14.

ON petition of C. S. Fetterman, Chas. F. McKenna, Arthur Allen and John Coyle an order was made in Common Pleas Court No. 1 yesterday directing assessors where persons have been duly registered by the Register of their respective districts, but who, through the oversight, inadvertance or neglect of such registers, have not been assessed nor a valuation placed upon their occupations, so as to enable them to pay their taxes, to make such assessment.

JUDGE EWING in his charge to the jury in the case of the Commonwealth vs. W. C. McDonald, in which the defense relied upon was that of insanity, said that the law presumes a man to be sane until he is shown by evidence to be insane. If a man is sane a short time before and a short time after the commission of an act, the presumption is strong that he was sane at the time of the act. When a defendant sets up the plea of insanity as a defense in an otherwise criminal, he is bound to make out that defense by evidence satisfactory to the jury. It is not sufficient that he raises a doubt of his sanity. He must establish his insanity by a preponderance of testimony to the satisfaction of the jury, and if he fail in so doing his defence fails.

THE CAMPAIGN.

Local Political Notes—Doings in and About the Cities.

The West Liberty Hayes and Wheeler club organized Wendesday evening, with Warren J. McIlvain as captain, received their uniforms last evening and will be in the South Side demonstration this evening.

There will be a reopening of Salisbury hall on next Tuesday evening, October 10, on the South Side. The Calicott Glee Club will give the entertainment, and the Ohio and Indiana election returns will be announced from the stage as they arrive, by the branch office of the Western Union Telegraph Company.

The Hayes and Wheeler marching club of Sewickley attended a pole raising at Mitchell's Mills, Franklin township, and marched during the evenidg a distance of ten miles. The meeting was addressed by B. C. Christy, Esq., Col. Haymaker and others.

The Thirty-first ward Glee Club, but recently organized, is one of the best glee clubs in this city. They attended the meeting at Lincoln and Frankstown avenues Thursday night, after which they visited the residence of General Negley and serenaded him. The General acknowledged the compliment in a neat speech.

The marching club organized at Lewis, Oliver & Phillips' works will turn out 200 men in the parade this evening.

Eight axemen, in handsome uniforms, will be out in the Twenty-third ward Hayes and Wheeler marching club this evening. The fishing club of the summer will also turn out.

The Hayes and Wheeler club of the Twenty third ward were presented with a beautiful banner last evening.

There will be from eight to ten car loads of torch-bearers from McKeesport, Braddocks and Hazelwood this evening. They will come in on the seven o'clock train, light up at the depot and march to their respective divisions.

The Welsh Central Hayes and Wheeler club organized last night by electing the following officers: Mr. E. P. Evans was unanimously chosen Captain; Mr. Johns, First Lieutenant; and J. E. Davis for Second Lieutenant. Messrs. E. P. Evans, J. E. Powell and J. E. Davis were appointed a Committee on Uniforms.

At a meeting of the officers of Welsh Hayes and Wheeler marching clubs, held last evening, it was resolved to turn out in the parade this evening in a body, under command of their own Marshall, and T. W. Davis, Esq., was unanimously chosen Marshal. An invitation was extended to all Welsh clubs in the county to join the battallion.

THIRD WARD, ALLEGHENY.

One of the largest and most successful meetings of the campaign was held in the Third ward, Allegheny, last evening. The stand for the speakers was erected against the side of the Perry House fronting on Perry street, and the space around it, both on the street round and on Madison avenue, was densely crowded with people, a large portion of whom were German Republicans. The stand was tastefully ornamented with festoons of evergreens and Chinese lanterns. A brass band was in attendance, and discoursed some fine music. The meeting was organized with the following officers:

President—Jacob Vetter.

Vice President—Dr. Hoche.

Secretaries—Charles Hetzell, Wm. Bellstein.

The President introduced H. A. Collier, Esq., who spoke nearly an hour, dealing some telling blows against the record democracy and their bogus reform candidates. At the close of his remarks the band played "Marching Through Georgia," when Henry Cordier, Esq., was presented to the meeting. His address was in the German language, and was a most able presentation of the claims of the Republican party to continue to hold the reins of Government for another Presidential term. His speech elicited much applause on the part of his audience.

General Archibald Blakely was the next and last speaker. His speech, owing to the lateness of the hour, was brief, but was delivered in a calm and excellent tone, in which the several issues were presented well chosen language and discussed with great force and clearness. At the close of the General's remarks he was loudly cheered, and the music of the applause of the band struck off a lively air. Three cheers were then proposed for the whole Republican ticket, and were given with a will, after which the crowd dispersed. The meeting was the largest and most enthusiastic of the evening shows that the Republicans of the upper wards of Allegheny are thoroughly aroused to the sense of their duty, and they will no doubt give a satisfactory account at the polls on election day.

The Republicans of the upper end of Allegheny City held a large meeting last evening at Herr's Island, which organized by electing the following officers:

President—Simon McRoberts. Vice Presidents—Smith Walker, H. F. Eggers, A. N. Burchfield, A. L. Foust, Peter Bohlen, James Omsloer, David Jackson, George H. Sattler, Peter Willhelm, Aid. Mosl, J. C. Bailey, Henry Nesmith, H. Wyning, D. Reno. Secretaries—Henry Schutte and the reporters of the press.

The meeting was addressed by John Megraw and John S. Robb, Esqs.

A LARGE REPUBLICAN MEETING AT NEW TEXAS.

On Thursday evening the Republicans of Plum and Ewing townships and vicinity, held a meeting in the school house, at New Texas. The turnout was large, and a number of ladies were present. The following were the officers of the meeting:

President—Major James Gray.

Vice Presidents—James Patterson, Samuel P. Kuhn, Andrew Grabbs, Wm. Meskimons, Riley McLaughlin, Henry Reiter, Capt. Geo. C. Patterson, E. B. Davidson, Rev. J. M. Hamilton, Isaac Trees, Crawford McJunkin.

Secretary—Dr. F. D. Bain.

Addresses were made by John S. Lambie, Esq., and Colonel Thomas M. Bayne, which were well received. In the afternoon a fine pole over one hundred feet in hight, was raised. The Republicans of Plum, Ewing and Penn townships are enthusiastic and earnest.

FLAG PRESENTATIONS.

The Thirteenth ward Republican club was presented with a handsome flag Thursday evening, at a meeting in the school house, by the ladies of the district. The presentation speech was made by Mr. John Molamphy, and responded to by Harry Campbell, Esq. Addresses were made by Gilbert McMasters, H. C. Campbell and others. Harry McCoy Glee club rendered some superb music.

RALLY AT LIBRARY, PA.

The Republicans of Library, Pa., held a grand rally on the evening of the 3d inst. There was a fine turn out of mounted torchbearers under command of Captain John Trimble, of Upper St. Clair. There will be another demonstration on the evening of the 13th, when good speakers will be on hand.

Telegraph wires will be run into the Republican headquarters, and the very fullest returns from the Ohio and Indiana elections will be announced next Tuesday night from the balcony erected over the Fifth avenue entrance.

The McKeesport Hayes and Wheeler Club were presented by the ladies of that place several evenings ago with a fine large English bunting flag. The club has been divided into two companies forming a battalion, with Mr Thomas Crawford as Major. They will hereafter be known as the McKeesport Hayes and Wheeler Battalion. Company A is under command of Captain Jenkins, and Company B, Captain Robinson.

THE healing of old differences in politics is illustrated by the nomination of General BANKS by the regular Republican party in Massachusetts.

WE hope all who vote on TAX receipts will bear in mind that the last day for the payment of taxes, in order to secure a vote, is the 7th of October—to-day.

EX-SECRETARY MCCULLOUGH still argues in favor of forced resumption. We do not need to say that we disagree with him, just as much now as at any previous period.

THE Philadelphia Times, though Democratic in its leanings, can see nothing in the letter of Governor HAYES' Secretary to the American Alliance to make a pother over. It says the affair was sent to it, in advance of its publication, but it would have nothing to do with it.

THE tumble in railroad stocks has apparently ended, and confidence has been so far restored as to put the depressed stocks on the rising list. The depression was almost entirely speculative, but has made sad havoc among weak holders, who have been compelled to sell on the decline. The rise appears healthful, and looks like being sustained.

WE do not know that there are any citizens of Ohio or Indiana within our reach, but if there are, we hope they will return home and vote. Republicans should not depend on the idea that the State will be carried, irrespective of their vote. The true policy is to be on hand promptly, not depending on the carrying of the State by others' votes.

THE shipment of $750,000 in gold from England, in payment of 4½ per cent. bonds, is a good sign of the times. The ROTHSCHILDS have been authorized to call in $10,000,000 in six per cents, and to place an equivalent amount of four per cents. We do not know that TILDEN'S reform theories could be more completely answered than they are by these facts.

AMONG the interesting items of intelligence from Europe, is that of the recent review of the German armies. The German Emperor manages to keep his military operations under control, and his army in the highest state of efficiency. Thus, whichever party he favors in the contest, will be fully safe in any operations he may engage in. The supposition is, that he will support the claims of the Russian Emperor, and the two may undertake to divide the territory of Turkey, according to their own notions as to how the map of Europe shall be recast. Thus, the operations of the German armies will be watched with the deepest interest.

THE retirement of the Independent, or greenback candidate for Governor in Indidiana, and his declaration for HARRISON and the Republican ticket, is a heavy blow to the hopes of the Democracy. His letter announcing his reasons for the change, is clear and convincing, and will have a tendency to draw the main portion of the Independents to the Republican candidate. An attempt was made to nominate a candidate in his stead, but notice was served that all proceedings of that character would be illegal, unless the convention were regularly called, which cannot be done, at this time. It is too near the election to make a change. We are not yet advised, as to the effect of the affair on the Independents, but we do not doubt that a majority of them will follow their leader.

THE Democratic meeting of "Soldiers and Sailors," does not prove the distinguished success it was expected to be. In the first place, they were largely bummers that were sent, and the numbers were provided for by actually employing the element necessary to make up the list. The resolutions are merely a rehash of the old Democratic sing-song, and amount to little. The speeches were not thought worth specially reporting, except HENDRICKS' welcome. To hear that old soldier welcoming the others must have been highly refreshing. He loved and encouraged them so greatly during the war, that his present affection is not at all remarkable. But it remains true, that the soldiers' affair has not produced the result that was expected, unless, indeed, the purpose is to retain the rank and file for voting purposes. This, however, will be fully cared for by the detectives, that have been put on the trail of those amiable gentlemen.

EVEN the New York Herald, which will not be thought a Republican journal, regards the attempt to connect HAYES with the American Alliance, as an honorary member, as an outrage. That little game will work to the injury of those who set it afloat. HAYES received the offer of support from the Alliance and courteously acknowledged it. This is all there is about it. Says the Herald: "It is not probable that this note of mere formal courtesy was submitted to the inspection of Governor HAYES; but, even if it was, there is nothing in it which it was worth while for him to tell his secretary to alter. It was a mere acknowledgment couched in courteous terms. He thought it due to his character as a gentleman and his position as a candidate that his clerk should acknowledge the receipt of respectful communications, but he did not feel that it was incumbent on him to make minute investigations into the organization of every insignificant body of the men who professed their intention to support him. But Mr. TILDEN'S shop in Liberty street, having got possession of this paltry note, made an investigation and found that the American Alliance is a set of Know Nothings. The Liberty street shop, thereupon conceived the brilliant idea of making Mr. HAYES responsible for the principles of that obscure organization and of twisting the note of his clerk into an acceptance of those principles. We are sorry that any respectable newspaper should have lent itself to so despicable a trick."

THE affirmation of the Democracy that the reconstruction policy of the Republican party is harsh, has been often answered by the showing of almost unparalleled liberality toward the vanquished rebels. But the New York Times looks at the subject from another standpoint. It shows that all there was of harshness in the reconstruction acts was provoked by the implacable enmity of the Southern whites. They would yield nothing. Instead of co-operating with the North, and accepting a situation which events made inevitable, they asserted a right to dictate terms, and practically to annul the logical consequences of emancipation. They sought, by penal laws and iniquitous police regulations in several of the States, to reduce the negroes to a condition differing from slavery in little more than name. The fourteenth amendment, therefore, became a necessity. What was, what is, the attitude of the Democrats toward it? They denounced it in Congress, and none more vehemently than Mr. HENDRICKS. In the Senate and in the House they voted solidly against it. They struggled to prevent its ratification by the States. The thirteen States in which their party ruled refused to ratify it. The supplemental reconstruction acts which decreed the illegality of the Governments in ten of these States, and exacted from them the ratification of the amendment as a condition of representation in Congress, intensified the bitterness of the opposition offered by the Democrats, who characterized the legislation as unconstitutional, and the ratification thus obtained as void. After this course, they have little occasion to complain that they have been made, in some particulars, to gnaw the file.

DEMOCRATIC MODESTY.

We feel that line upon line must be given, in order that the people may have an adequate idea of what Democratic modesty consists of. It embraces the proposition that Republicans shall forget the outrageous character of the rebellion, while the Democracy remember and demand payment for the losses of the rebels during the war. The slain soldiers of the North, broken families, fearful debt, and all the losses and sufferings of the war, are nothing; and those who launched the war upon us are to be forgiven, and their perjury forgotten, while the losses of rebels are to be faithfully remembered and paid. This is the proposition of the Democratic party, made openly and officially by the House, last Winter, by entertaining bills to pay rebel losses. Was the North the criminal party in the late war? This is the theory of the Democratic party; else why pay rebel losses, incurred in the war? The party beaten, or at fault, in a war, is always the one on which conditions are imposed.

The Democracy asks us to believe it to be the Reform power of the day. What has it in its history to found faith upon? It gave us rebellion; its leader, TILDEN, has at least swindled the Government, if not perjured himself; his chosen companion and mouth piece is JOHN MORRISSEY the gambler; he was TWEED'S friend, so long as he was prosperous. HENDRICKS has never explained his fraudulent mule grab; and in various localities their candidates for office are men of utterly disreputable character. In two or more instances in this State, their legislative candidates are criminals before the law. In the House last winter they set aside the rules heretofore in use, to guard the Treasury against rebel claims, and allowed claims to be established on the oath of the claimant and one friend, and opened the door for imposing a debt on the people of the North of $2,500,000,000 to pay rebel losses in the war. This is what they have done and are doing. Yet they are to be considered Reformers, and to have power in the nation. Are they not modest?

Let us suggest a comparison. A person grows up in a community full of vicious traits. He is a gambler, thief, perjurer, bruiser, fighter, and eventually a murderer. He is punished, but not to the full extent of his crime, a sentimental cry for clemency setting him free and restoring him to citizenship. He shows no signs of repentance, but claims forgetfulness of his crimes. In the meantime he arranges to take revenge on those whom he deems the cause of his misfortunes. And while in mid career in his work of rascality and revenge, he suddenly becomes possessed of the idea of political power, and sets himself up as the person specially qualified to reform the morals of politics. What would be thought of him and his modesty? Would he not be regarded as one of the most impudent scoundrels of the age? Yet the Democratic party has done just this. It and TILDEN are guilty of nearly all the crimes in the catalogue. They have never repented of their crimes, and yet set up as reformers. Can you trust them?

VOTE THE FULL TICKET.

The whole strength of the Democratic fight, in this region, is directed to the election of candidates for Congress. Their nominations are personally reputable, a fact we readily and cheerfully admit. But are we in a situation to vote personal compliments at the expense of our material necessities and political principles? In the the Twenty-third District we do not doubt the election of Colonel BAYNE, and the same effort is not put forth against him as against Mr. ERRETT, in this District. It is claimed that in Pittsburgh the river men, coal dealers, and others, are drawn to Mr. HOPKINS by his anti-discrimination course. For all that he did that was of value, let due praise be accorded him. But are we to rest on the past, or shall we look to the future? If we continue to want our evils remedied, we should deliberately look undeniable facts in the face. We set down the following points as unimpeachable. 1. That Mr. HOPKINS' bill, as presented to Congress would not have afforded relief, because it contained items in conflict with the Constitution of the United States. 2. That because of this, it was never within his power to get the bill reported from Committee. 3. That he did not make use of his privilege, as a member of Congress, to demand that the bill be reported if only for discussion. 4. That had it been thus reported and ably discussed, that alone would have done us good. 5. That in the movement to investigate freight discriminations Mr. HOPKINS was outgeneraled, in that the duty of investigating went to the Committee on Commerce, and was killed there. Mr. HOPKINS knew that committee to be unfavorable to thorough investigation, and was entitled, as the mover of the resolution to investigate, to the chairmanship of a special committee of investigation. All the advantage of controlling the investigation was thus lost, and the whole business shelved. Thus Mr. HOPKINS failed at every turn, accomplished nothing, and cannot give the slightest assurance that he can accomplish any results at the coming session of Congress. On the contrary, we interpreted, and do interpret, his speech at Lafayette Hall to mean that he is hopeless of results from this Congress. We do not impugn his motives, but state simple, undeniable facts. Suppose our river men had a Captain who perpetually failed to take his boat down the river, however honestly he tried, what would they do?

On the other side, there are several equally cogent facts to be considered. 1. It is in evidence that Mr. ERRETT has been for twenty years, and is now, positive in his opposition to freight discriminations. 2. In the existing controversy on that subject he has supported every movement looking to relief, that had any prospect of tangible results. 3. He is a man of decided force of character, and is in the habit of accomplishing what he undertakes. 4. We have never heard him spoken of other than as personally an honest man. As such, he has pledged himself to do all possible to meet the wishes of our people on this freight discrimination issue, and in favor of the Ohio River improvement, and will, we believe, fully redeem the pledge. 5. In a Republican Congress, as the next is reasonably certain to be, a Republican representative will wield far more influence than a Democrat possibly can. This will be the case particularly with Allegheny county. Our reputation, as a Republican stronghold is so widely known that a failure to elect our candidate will be regarded with extreme disfavor by the party at large. Hence we conclude, that all else being equal, Republican Congressmen will be of more benefit to us than Democrats can possibly be.

Added to these special considerations, however, are those of a general but very important character. Unless we are willing to risk another period of Democratic rule in the House, we should see to it that no Democrat is elected, where we can possibly prevent it. It is no reflection on the private character of Democratic candidates to say that they will yield to the rule of the majority of their party in caucus. The necessity of party discipline, and the arbitrary character of party rule compels this. The point has been made against Mr. HOPKINS that after clear and undoubted evidence had been presented that JEFF. DAVIS sustained WINDER in all his terrible barbarities at Andersonville, he voted with his party to grant amnesty to DAVIS. Yet that man was guilty, in the face of the remonstrances of rebel officers, of sustaining WINDER, and thus perpetuating and increasing the horrors of Andersonville. But with evidence of this fact, clear and undeniable, HOPKINS voted to amnesty DAVIS. Why? Because his party caucus had determined to do this, and he was controlled by his party. So it will be in all other matters. Let the Democratic party continue, as it will, the policy of paying rebel losses, and all Democratic representatives must support that policy. Their political existence depends upon it. Therefore, whatever private grievances any may have, we urge that this is a time when the country demands something of us. We must see to it that every Republican candidate, here and in all the districts of the State, is elected, if such election depends on our votes. We cannot trust the Democratic party. Its pretence of Reform is the merest sham and means nothing. We cannot safely do otherwise than vote our full ticket, whether Congressional, County or Legislative. We hope that the rally to the old flag will be found to be the grandest we have ever had, and know that no Republican will regret voting the full ticket this year.

HE HAD NO FUN IN HIM.

The Clergyman and the Stranger's Fraternal Meeting.

One of the members of the Methodist Conference, recently held here, was out for a walk at an early hour one morning, and while on Howard street he encountered a strapping big fellow, who was drawing a wagon to the blacksmith shop.

"Catch hold here and help me down to the shop with this wagon and I'll buy the whiskey" called the big fellow.

"I never drink," solemnly replied the good man.

"Well, you can take a cigar."

"I never smoke."

The man dropped the wagon tongue, looked hard at the member and asked:

"Don't you chew 'em?"

"No, sir," was the decided reply.

"You must get mighty lonesome," mused the teamster.

"I guess I'm all right—I feel first-rate."

"I'll bet you even that I can lay you on your back," remarked the teamster. "Come now, let's warm up a little."

"I never bet."

"Well, let's take each other down for fun, then. You are as big as I am, and I'll give you the under hold."

"I never have fun," solemnly answered the minister.

"Well, I'm going to tackle you anyway. Here we go!"

The teamster slid up and endeavored to get a neck hold, but he had only just commenced to fool about when he was lifted clear off the grass and slammed against a tree-box with such force that he gasped half a dozen times before he could get his breath.

"Now you keep away from me!" exclaimed the minister, picking up his cane.

"Bust me if I don't!" replied the teamster, as he edged off. "What's the use in lying and saying that you didn't have any fun in you when you're chuck full of it! Blame it! you wanted to break my back, didn't you!"

A Big Whitewashin' Contract.

A venerable colored gentleman, who scrapes and whitens walls for a living happened to be passing Martin Hall last evening just as the Democratic meeting was about to commence. One of the Committee of Arrangements, who stood at the entrance of the building, no ticing him, at once conceived the idea that it would be a good card for the meeting to have the "man and brother" prominently displayed upon the platform. Accordingly he accosted him:

White Democrat—Excuse me, my dear sir, but we are about to have a Democratic ratification meeting up stairs, and I take the liber ty—

Man and Brother—Go 'way from me! You Demmecrats ur good at "takin' liberty," boss, but yer neber was good on gibin any to de cullered folks.

The committeeman, discovering that he had waked up the wrong passenger, was about to beat a hasty retreat, but his newmade friend detained him.

Man and Brother—Boss, there's one thing 'bout your party what I envies them, suah, I 'clare to goodness I do!

White Democrat—Well, what's that?

Man and Brother—Why, boss, if I had as big a contract for whitewashin' as you Demmecrats have who go for Massa Tilden, I—ha! ha! ha!—

At this point in the conversation the white Democrat found that an engagement which he could no longer defer required his presence up stairs.—Albany Journal.

Mrs. Hiram Powers and Her Children.

Mrs. Hiram Powers is visiting her old home in Cincinnati. She went abroad with her husband soon after their marriage thirty-nine years ago, and this is her first visit to America since. She returns to Italy in November. She says: "My children were born there; my property is there; the recollections of my husband are clustered there, and that is my home. The manner of living in Italy is quite different from that of America. It is easier. I mean by that that there is less to vex one in a business point." She has three daughters and three sons, two of whom follow their father's profession, but have not his talent. All these children speak Italian fluently and English as correctly as if they had been born here. Mr. Powers wanted to visit America, but she says "his children grew up around him, and he never felt able to bear the expense of a trip across the ocean with his children, and he refused to make the visit without me and the children. And so he died with the hope unrealized."

A Patent Mustard Plaster.

Everybody must feel more at ease now since the advent of a patent mustard plaster. They are clean, compact, and can be carried in the vest pocket and slapped on at any moment. This invention will work a revolution in society. It can't help it. Now, for instance, the writer does not go to picnics. They are enjoyable, but he was afraid he would appear to be ostentatious if he went with a quart can of mustard in one hand and a roll of muslin under his arm, and it would hardly do to go unprepared for an emergency. There is no trouble now. Everybody can go to picnics, clambakes, and church festivals with impunity. It will take but a minute to step back of a tree, pull up your vest, slap on the plaster, and pain is harnessed at one's command. The saddening reflection is that forty years after the death of the inventor his grave will be overgrown by weeds, with no stone to mark his resting place. This will be apt to cause trouble.

A Story of John Brown.

An old schoolfellow of John Brown tells this anecdote illustrating the man's fervent conscientiousness: Salmon Brown, a younger brother of John, was also a pupil at Morris Academy, Conn., and by some misdemeanor had incurred his displeasure. Not willing that Salmon should evade the punishment the case merited, John reported the case to his tutor, and after narrating the particulars said: Mr. Vaill, if Salmon had done this thing at home father would have punished him. I know he would expect you to punish him now for doing this, and if you don't I shall." The tutor let the matter go for that day, and that night, finding that Salmon was likely to escape punishment, John made good his word, more in sorrow than in anger—giving his brother a severe flogging.

Not Select Enough for Her.

"Are you going to the Centennial?" asked a friend of a Chicago miss on the street.

"I go to the Centennial?" exclaimed she; "Not I!"

"Not you—why not?" inquired the friend.

"Because," answered the miss, with proudly set lips, "I don't care to visit any such a common place where everybody goes!"

And turning upon her heels, which were a little run down, she pranced down the streets with a high head and haughty tread.

Latest Advices Concerning Money and Stock Matters.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
SATURDAY, October 7, 1876. }

The call of the Comptroller has been responded to by the publication of the sworn returns of the condition of our banks. The exhibit made shows a surprisingly healthy condition among our banks, and is a good indication of the preparedness of the banks to meet any demand growing out of the improvement of the times. We do not doubt that the banks were at some pains to make as strong a showing as possible, but it none the less proves that all is clear and that our financial institutions are safe and strong. Local financial matters continue quite active, and business at the banks is brisker than usual. All departments of trade appear to have revived, and merchants generally report an active trade for all classes of goods. The receipts of grain and live stock continue quite heavy, and the movement of currency to the county is well maintained. The demand for money is unusually large, and bankers appear to be very cheerful—the change in the past two or three weeks being almost unprecedented.

NEW YORK, October 6, 1876.

Money closed easy at 2@3; prime mercantile paper 4@6. The customs receipts were $246,000. The Assistant Treasurer disbursed $17,000. The clearings were $32,000,000. Sterling was firm at 482@485. Gold opened at 109¾, declined to 109¼, and closed at 109¾. The borrowing rates were ⅛ and 1. Loans were also made flat. Governments were weak. Railroad bonds were firm, especially for coal issues, Lake Shore and Northwestern. The stock market was active and excited during the greater portion of the day, and a very large business was transacted. At times considerable buoyancy prevailed, and some shares reached the highest point yet reached, but in final dealings there was a reaction in some cases. Among the coal stocks New Jersey Central advanced to 40¾, and closed at 38¾. Delaware, Lackawanna & Western advanced to 71¾. Delaware & Hudson Canal rose to 69¾, and closed at 68. There was considerable realizing in these stocks to-day, as there was also in the general market. Michigan Central, after rising to 46, fell off to 44, and closed at 44¼. Lake Shore rose to 56¾, fell off to 55¾, and closed at 55¾. New York Central advanced to 103, and Rock Island to 101½, but closed at 101¼ and 100¾ respectively. Pacific Mail rose to 23¾, and closed at 22½. Western Union advanced to 71¾, with the last sales at 71¾. Northwest shares were strong late in the day, and advanced to 36½ for common and to 61½ for preferred, closing at the highest point. St. Paul shares were weak, the common declining to 27½ and the preferred to 57¾. There was a fractional recovery at the close. Hannibal and St. Joe common rose to 14½, preferred to 35, and Ohio to 11. There was a reaction on the stocks of 1@3 per cent. at the close. The transactions were 210,000 shares, of which 8,000 were Pacific Mail, 15,000 Western Union, 9,000 Northwests, 4,000 Rock Island, 12,000 St. Paul, 59,000 Lake Shore, 4,000 New York Central, 9,000 Ohios, 7,000 Wabash, 12,000 Michigan Central, 45,000 Delaware, Lackawanna & Western, and 28,000 New Jersey Central.

Chicago Breadstuffs Market.

Flour was in good demand and strong at the advance noted yesterday, a further rise being asked by holders of some prefered brands. There was more inquiry for winters, and several sales were made for shipment in addition to the purchases made by local dealers. Sales were reported of 1,650 bbls winters, partly at $6.75@6.80; 1,400 do. spring extras, chiefly at $6.25@7; 26 do. spring superfines at $5.25@5.50, rye flour on private terms. Total, 3,076 bbls. The market closed firm at the following as the asking range of prices: choice winters, $6.85@7; medium do., $6.75@6.85; choice spring extras, $6.50@6; medium do., $6.25@6.40; shipping extras, $6.07½@6.25; choice patents, $6.75@7; common do., $6.25@6.50; some springs, $5.25@6; spring superfines, $4.25@4.75, rye flour, $4.25@4.35.

Condition of the Markets at Home and Abroad.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, October 6, 1876. }

The most notable feature in the general markets is the firmness developed in Breadstuffs, and we may add, until quite recently, it was very generally unexpected. The grocery markets continue moderately active, but devoid of anything important. Provisions rather firmer with a fair demand, but unchanged. Butter, Eggs and Cheese in steady demand at full prices.

APPLES—Coming in more freely and the market is reported dull, with the supply accumulating; we quote at $2@2.50 per bbl.

BEANS—Sales at $1.15@1.25 ₱ bushel for old crop navies.

BROOM CORN—Choice hurl in fair demand, with sales at 7 to 8¾c as to quality; brush that will work up, 6@6½c; medium green, 5½@6; red tipped, 5@5½; inferior, 3@4; crooked, 2@3½.

BUTTER—Is coming forward more freely, but the supply of prime table butter is not in excess of the demand. Prime to choice solid packed in firkins and tubs, 23@25c; do. roll, 25@28; choice dairy rolls, 20@30; fancy creamery, 33@35.

CHEESE—Steady at 12c for August and 13c for September to the wholesale trade—in additional in a jobbing way.

CRANBERRIES—$10@12 per bbl.

CHESTNUTS—$3@4 ₱ bushel.

COAL—Bituminous is quotable at 4½@5 ₱ bu, delivered. Anthracite, ₱ ton for broken egg by the carload and $6@6½ delivered.

DRIED FRUIT—Is in light supply, but there is little or no demand, and as yet no regular rates have been established.

EGGS—In fair supply, but quiet and unchanged, 19@20c.

FLOUR—The market continues firm with a very fair local trade, although there has been no recent change in prices. The New York Bulletin, reviewing that market, says. In the flour line, the encouraging feature of the week's trade was the increased call near the close for low grade stock, mostly on export account, at improved prices. Of Saturday's sales for shipment were nearly 10,000 bbls city mill extras for the English and West Indies markets, of which were about 4,500 bbls for shipment to England. And in Monday's dealings were included 2,000 bbls good Milwaukee shipping extra at $5.22½@5.25, closing with $5.25 bid. Considerable purchases have been made of winter wheat extras, also for shipment, at stronger figures. Trade and family extras have been in moderate request within the previous range, Minnesota extras continuing the favorites of the list and running very light in stock toward the close. Southern flour was exceptionally weak, on comparatively free offerings.

GRAPES—Quoted at 8@c per lb.

GRAIN—The receipts of all kinds of grain continues very light, and with an increasing demand and very light stocks, both in the hands of wholesale and retail dealers, prices are firm and tending upward. Wheat is in steady demand and prices firmer. Penna and Ohio red winter, $1.20@1.22; do. amber, $1.23@1.25. Very little call for white Wheat and but little offering—the inquiry is chiefly for good red. The Oat market continues firm, but unchanged; mixed on track, 37@38; white, 39@40. Corn continues in light supply, but the demand appears to be increasing; quotable at 53@55 for Ear on wharf and track, and 55@58 for Shelled, as to quality. Rye is scarce and firmer; 65@66c. There appears to be rather more inquiry for Barley and the market is firmer; we continue to quote, however, at 90@1 ₱ bushel, as to color, quality and condition.

HAY—Loose from country wagons, $10@15, as to quality and condition. Baled is quoted at $14@15 for No. 1 Timothy, and $10@12 for No. 2. Prairie, $9@12, as to quality.

MILL FEED—Bran on wharf and track, quoted at $14@15 per ton; seconds, shorts and shipstuffs, $14@15; middlings and chopped feed, $19@22.

OILS—Current make remains at about same value, there being some inquiry for winter strained. We quote:

Carbon still quoted at 22@2c.

ONIONS—Less active and prices are easier; we now quote at $2@2.50 per bbl.

POTATOES—Irish selling in a jobbing way, out of store at 75@80c per bu. Sweets in good supply and steady; Baltimores quotable at $2.50@3 ₱ bbl. Jerseys, $2.25@3.50.

PROVISIONS—The demand for the hog product generally keeps up well for this season of the year, and prices have stiffened up somewhat within the past day or two in sympathy with the advices from Cincinnati and Chicago.

THE IRON TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }

Pittsburgh.

PIG IRON—There is a continued steady demand, and while the inquiry is chiefly for small lots and buyers generally are disposed to adhere closely to the hand-to-mouth policy, there is a fair volume of business in the aggregate. The stock, especially of No. 1 mill iron, is very much reduced, and with an increasing demand for this particular kind, it is held very firmly, and some holders are indifferent about selling at current rates; they reason that there is no possibility of it going any lower, and that when there is a change it will be for the better. The arrivals of Charcoal iron, since the resumption of river navigation, have been liberal, but it appears to be taken about as fast as it arrives, hence as yet there has been no accumulation. Prices, as compared with last week, remain unchanged.

Following sales were reported:

MANUFACTURED IRON—While business generally is not as brisk as it usually is at this particular time, it is fairly active, nevertheless; it has improved considerably within the past few weeks, and with very few exceptions the mills are all running. Orders are coming forward pretty freely, both from the east and west, and we can report a very fair demand for Sheet, Hoop, Tank and Plate iron as well as most of the leading specialties. Prices are unsatisfactory and irregular; quotations may be given at 2a2.20 for bars.

NAILS—The demand is rather better if anything than it usually is at this season of the year, and prices are firm but unchanged; $2.85, 60 days, for less than 200 kegs, and $2.75, 60 days, for orders of 200 kegs and upwards, with two ₱ cent. off for cash.

HORSE AND MULE SHOES—Trade is only fair; prices unchanged; Shoenberger & Co., quote at 4½c ₱ lb, cash, for Horse Shoes, and 5¼c, cash, for Mule Shoes.

STEEL—There is a very fair trade, the best evidence of which lies in the fact that the mills are all busy; and about the only complaint heard is in regard to prices, which are being shaved so close that there is little or no margin for profit.

SCRAP—There is rather more doing in scrap iron, although as in the case of pig iron, the inquiry is chiefly for small lots and prices remain unchanged. No. 1 wrought scrap iron quotable at $23, 4 mos.

PHILADELPHIA.

The demand for Bar Iron is very limited, the mills are doing about two-thirds of their capacity, and the stores which are said to be selling Western Iron report business exceedingly dull, so that in fact business is dull throughout, although our manufacturers think the western mills are supplying the trade. Prices are about the same as last week, although buyers in quantity could probably obtain some concessions. The demand for Plate and Sheet Iron is fair, but not what might be expected at this season. No orders of importance are in the market, although numerous transactions in small lots are reported. There is also more doing in Skelp Iron, with reasonably fair prospects ahead for a fall trade. We quote Bar to 2¼c for Common, and 2.20c to 2.30c for Best Refined.

BRITISH IRON MARKET.

A Sheffield dispatch to the Iron Age, under date of Oct. 4th, reports: Scotch Pig—There is a large business doing, and the demand is still improving. The following are makers's prices:

|---|---|
| Garsherrie No. 1..... | 68s 6d |
| Coltness No. 1..... | 68s 6d |
| Glengarnock No. 1..... | 63s 6d |
| Eglinton No. 1..... | 57s 6d |

Manufactured Iron—A large business has been done. The demand is improving, and prices are steady. No change in quotations.

Rails unchanged.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY October 6, 1876. }

The Crude market continues quiet, although the general feeling in regard to the immediate future is hopeful; it is thought and believed that an improvement, and a decided one, is only a question of a little time. Our latest advices from the source of supply at this writing quote United certificates at $1.01¾ bid and $1.02¾ asked; Union, $1.50, and immediate shipment at $1.70@1.72½.

Refined quiet but firm; combination price, Philadelphia delivery, 25c, with 23½ bid. Price to home trade unchanged at 23.

Oil Barrels very dull but unchanged; countries, $1.20@1.25; city make, $1.30@1.35, as to size.

HOME NEWS.

The probabilities for to-day are rising and high barometer, colder and clear or partly cloudy weather, and northerly to westerly winds, diminishing in force, with heavy frosts.

Amusements.

"Galatea" will be performed at the Opera House this afternoon, and "Galatea" and "Leah" to-night, with reduced prices. Joe Murphy next week in the "Kerry Gow."

The Pope combination will present "The Gascon" at the matinee this afternoon, and "Richard III." this evening. Genevieve Rogers on Monday evening in "Maud Muller."

Mysterious Disappearance.

A case of mysterious disappearance of a child was reported at the Mayor's office last night. On Thursday afternoon Lizzie Lee, nine years of age, whose parents reside on Bluff street, left her home, and has not been heard of since. She wore a black dress, black and white plaid shawl, and had light hair and dark complexion. She is believed to be too old, and to be too well acquainted with the city to get lost, and her parents fear she has met with foul play.

Congressional Conferees.

The Democratic conferees for the Twenty-first Congressional District met at the St. Charles Hotel yesterday, pursuant to adjournment, and on the one hundred and nineteenth ballot nominated Jacob Turney, of Greensburg, Westmoreland county, as the candidate of the Democracy for Congress.

The Twenty-fourth District, Republican conferees, met at the Monongahela House yesterday, pursuant to adjournment, to try to nominate a candidate for Congress for that district. After several hours balloting the conference adjourned until Monday without making a nomination.

Moul, Wilhelm and Shauers were appointed to confer with the Police Committee in regard to the matter. The Superintendent of the water works was directed to report the number of gas lamps now in use in the city.

Gilmore Band.

This great organization, decidedly the most perfect and popular musical combination in this country, will begin its series of seven concerts in the Exposition building on Tuesday evening next. It is intended to furnish a classical, operatic and popular music, all of the finest execution, by artists celebrated in their profession. Miss Morton, an accomplished vocalist, will appear at each concert. This series of concerts will undoubtedly furnish the lovers of music the best opportunity for enjoyment they have ever had. Reserved seats will be provided for seventy-five cents, general admission fifty cents. From the number of season tickets sold to our best citizens, it is now perfectly certain that the concerts will be largely attended by the best classes of our people. Seats will be provided for about 4,000 persons—and by rearranging the exhibits ample promenade room will be provided for the multitude. These concerts are the event of the season.

Hymeneal.

Our sincere congratulations are extended to our young friend, Mr. R. J. Wilson, of this city, upon his entrance on Wednesday evening upon a hymeneal career. In making this new departure, he was so highly favored by the Fates, as to secure for a life companion, Miss Ella Dalzell, daughter of Thomas Dalzell, of Enon Valley, and one of the most accomplished and fascinating of the beautiful sisterhood of that village famed for beautiful belles. The exercises incidental to the knot-tying, took place at the residence of the bride in the presence of a large company, and the occasion was a brilliant society event, and one that will be long remembered in the Valley. The bride was attended by the Misses Sallie Wilson and Mamie Renshaw, of this city, while Mr. Will P. Wood, of this city, and Mr. John Dalzell, brother of the bride, attended the groom. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. S. Morton, assisted by Rev. Wm. M. Taylor. There were many visitors from the city among the company assembled to do honor to the occasion, which "will be remembered as a marriage bell." The young couple left on an early train for an extended sojourn eastward. May the sunshine of prosperity ever illumine their pathway, and their cup of happiness always be full to the brim.

[illegible]ers—Sundry

held last even-
ing. Clerk McGonnigle reported the expenditure of $347.63 during the month for out-door relief and office expenses. Also, that he had given out 400 bushels of coal and 23 pairs of shoes and collected $22.50. Steward Grubbs reported that 31 persons had been admitted to the House during the past month, and 30 were discharged, leaving 261 inmates at the Home October 1st. During the past month there were 7 deaths at the Home. City Physician Dr. B. B. Smith reported having made 461 visits to the poor, and receiving 360 visits at his office during September. Also, that he had made two or three visits each week to the Home.

The monthly bills, amounting to $3,900, were approved. The office hours of the Clerk were fixed from 8 to 10 A. M. and 1:30 to 4 P. M. A warrant was ordered to be drawn for the insurance premium, just as soon as the insurance on the Home is satisfactorily settled. A proposition from the Atlantic Fire Extinguisher Company was received offering to put in Connolly Fire Extinguishers at the Home for $1,300. Referred. Mr. Trimble submitted a resolution providing for the division of the city into three districts, and that at the next election three physicians be elected to attend to the city indigent, at a salary of $300 each per annum. Laid over.

CITY BUSINESS.

Meetings of the Finance and Printing Committees and the Board of Health.

Finance Committee.

A special meeting of the Finance Committee of Councils was held in the Controller's office yesterday afternoon, Mr. Shipton presiding.

The Pittsburgh Savings Bank presented a communication in relation to the securities demanded in place of A. Ackley and Jesse Lippincott, asking the Committee to reconsider their former action. It was shown that the bank had enough bondsmen to fully cover all liabilities, and their request was granted.

An ordinance was recommended to Councils providing for the issue of railroad 6 per cent. compromise bonds in exchange for four per cent. bonds at eighty-six per cent. of their face.

The request of the Board of Health for an increase of appropriation was referred to the City Attorney and Controller.

The bill of Hutchinson Battery for $109.02 for firing a salute on July 4th, in honor of the Centennial opening, was recommended to Councils for payment.

The bill of Prothonotary Kennedy for $405.50 for entering municipal liens was ordered to be paid.

Adjourned.

Printing Committee.

The Printing Committee of Councils met yesterday afternoon, Capt. John A. Fox presiding.

The following bills were approved: Will F. Walker, for job printing, $1,518.83. Stevenson & Foster, for printing Municipal Record, $17.53.

The matter of the acceptance or rejection of the printed reports of the Water Assessor and the Superintendent of the Water Works, was laid over until the next meeting.

Capt. John A. Fox was elected Chairman, vice Capt. Aull resigned.

Adjourned.

Board of Health.

A regular monthly meeting of the Board of Health was held yesterday afternoon, President Slagle in the chair.

The report of Health Officer Gray, for September, showed that 318 nuisances had been abated, 2 suits instituted, 12 permits issued, and $285.25 received from permits, etc., during the month.

Dr. W. Snively reported that there were 285 deaths in the city during September. The death rate, equivalent to 23.62 per every 1,000 inhabitants, as compared with previous years, was as follows:

|---|---|
| Sept., 1873 | 272 |
| Sept., 1874 | 290 |
| Sept., 1875, 5 weeks | 267 |
| Sept., 1876, 4 weeks | 258 |

Bills amounting to $178.16 were approved.

Some other routine business of minor importance was transacted, and the Board adjourned.

Scott and others will take part in the services. In the evening at 7 o'clock, the pulpit will be occupied by Rev. Lewis Hay.

THE Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions closed the month of September with $9,540 less receipts (even including special gifts for the debt) than were reported at the same date last year. The debt of $36,188, which was reported at the Assembly has therefore increased to $45,728. This does not include the usual short coming of the Summer months, which would amount to many thousands, but is a decrease from the Summer receipts of 1875. The outlook is dark.

THE United Presbyterian makes this suggestion: "If there are any United Presbyterians having property which they wish to dispose of benevolently by will, we would remind them that our colleges and seminaries are crippled in their work through constant want of money. And if there are persons disposed to make contributions, larger or smaller, to a work that they believe is the Lord's, we would call their attention to the same needy objects. It may be safely asserted that no part of our denominational outfit is so poorly provided for as the schools, and the result can be nothing else than injury."

A LARGE and interesting meeting of the Womens' Union Baptist Missionary Society was held last Thursday afternoon and evening, in the Penn Avenue Baptist church, East End. Interesting reports were read from the various missionary circles, showing the progress both of the home and foreign work. Admirable addresses were made by Rev. J. S. Hutson, of the Nixon Street church, Allegheny, and Rev. J. S. Wrightnour, of the Penn Avenue church, Pittsburgh. A committee was appointed to arrange for a grand Womens' Missionary meeting on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 18, the week of the State anniversaries, in the Fourth Avenue Baptist church. The ladies of the congregation, noted for their hospitality, prepared an excellent supper for all who were present in the church.

THE Pittsburgh Christian Advocate thus concludes a two column article on Huxley: "The verdict of his hearers and that of the press, we venture to predict, will be, that he failed signally in his attempt. In conclusion we would say there are more than the three hypotheses enumerated by Prof. Huxley as to the origin of the world. The Christian Church adopts one, he does not mention. No one doubts the fact of evolution, but the question of its limitations is the one in debate. That every species, even the most advanced and complex in organization, was developed from a primordial cell to which life had been communicated, is the teaching of physiology, and religion finds no difficulty in admitting it. That every individual of each species is now thus developed, nobody disputes. We do not fear any danger to religion or the Church from such teachings as the elegant Englishman advanced, so long as sinners find salvation in Christ, and believers die with the inspiration of immortality in their hearts."

SPLENDID RACING.

Last Day of the Fall Meeting at Friendship Park—Two Excellent Trots in Spite of a Heavy Track—Fair Races and Square Trots—A Profitable Day of Pool Selling.

Yesterday was a peculiar sort of a day. In the forenoon the sun shone out at intervals with cheering brightness; at noon it was too warm for overcoats, and rain seemed a thing afar off. In the afternoon it was decidedly mixed, for a while the sun shining in an enticing manner, and soon being hid behind disagreeable, cold looking and threatening clouds. Altogether, however, the prospect was not very encouraging, and that, possibly, was the reason why so few persons turned out to see the really exciting races that took place at Friendship Park yesterday.

The fall meeting has not been a very successful one to the Association financially speaking. The weather all week has been bad, causing the postponement of the races for two or three days, and the crowding of the two best into one day.

THE HORSES.

Yesterday afternoon the 2:33 and the free-for-all races came off. All told there were probably not over a hundred people in the park, but still the pool selling was much more lively than on any previous day. On the free-for-all the pools amounted to several thousand dollars. The profits went far to relieve the Association from the loss incurred by the slim attendance, but will by no means clear them.

The free-for-all was first called, the entries and goers being as follows: b. g. Brother Jonathan; g. m. Lady H.; g. s. Rival, and b. g. John B.

In the 2:33 trot the entries were: g. s. Rival; h. g. Sleepy Tom; b. g. Davey; b. g. Prince Clay; and g. g. Charmer. Rival being in the free-for-all, was withdrawn from the 2:33, and Prince Clay did not appear. The starters were, therefore, only Charmer, Sleepy Tom and Davey.

FREE-FOR-ALL—FIRST HEAT.

The first heat of the free-for-all was called only a few minutes before four o'clock. John B. drew the pole, Brother Jonathan second, Rival third and Lady H. the outside. Before the start pools sold but slowly, Jonathan being decidedly the favorite—so much so, in fact, that betters were very chary of taking anything against him. John B. was second choice, but few takers were found. The fear of Jonathan being so apparent in the crowd, McKelvy, who was selling pools, withdrew him, and sold John B., Rival and Lady H. separately. But even then the pools went off slowly.

The horses got off for the first heat with but little difficulty, scoring only two or three times before going. On the quarter John B. was leading, with Jonathan pressing him closely. Lady H. broke badly, and ran for a considerable distance, in order to regain her lost ground. At the half John B. still lead, with Jonathan close behind. Both horses trotted squarely, not making more than one or two skips, and John B. come in two lengths ahead, in 2:34. Rival just saved his distance, with Lady H. two or three lengths ahead of him, but on account of running the latter was placed fourth by the judges.

SECOND HEAT.

In the second heat Jonathan took the lead at the turn and maintained it to the quarter, when he broke and fell back. Lady H. closed up so that in the back stretch the three were neck and neck. Lady H. broke before reaching the half, and John B. and Jonathan had it nip and tuck together until they reached the back stretch the second time, when Jonathan took the lead and maintained it to the close, winning in 2:34. John B. was only a length and a half behind; Lady H. came in third a dozen lengths back, but was again given fourth place for running. The flag was dropped at the distance-pole for Rival, but he was admitted for the

THIRD HEAT.

In the third heat Jonathan and John B. held it even to the turn, when Jonathan got ahead and kept it up. At the half John B. was about two lengths behind. Jonathan came in ahead of John B. three or four lengths an easy winner in 2:39. Lady H. and Rival were again way behind, and only saved their distance by Jonathan closing the stretch on a slack.

FOURTH HEAT.

On the fourth heat Jonathan once more obtained a good lead at the turn, and kept it. At the half he was a length and a half ahead of John B., with Lady H. and Rival away back. Jonathan kept his lead and won the heat and the race in 2:38. John B. was three lengths behind, and Lady H. and Rival clear out.

2:33—FIRST HEAT.

The 2:33 race was trotted between the heats of the free-for-all. In the draw Sleepy Tom got the pole, Charmer second and Davy the outside. They got off with little difficulty and kept well together till the quarter was passed, when Davy fell back in making the hill. At the half Charmer and Sleepy Tom were well together, but at the second turn the mare broke and fell back. She recovered after passing the quarter, and on the home stretch passed Tom and came in winner in 2:44. Sleepy Tom was a length and Davy five or six lengths behind.

SECOND HEAT.

On the Second heat Charmer lost her feet before reaching the first quarter, and fell back greatly. At the half Sleepy Tom was leading by nearly a dozen lengths, with Davey and Charmer together. The horse kept his lead, although Charmer closed up with him; so that he won the heat, in 2:43. Davey was about six lengths back.

THIRD HEAT.

The third heat was a very beautiful one, between Sleepy Tom and Charmer. Both trotted fairly and squarely from the go to within fifty feet of the wire, when the close, Sleepy Tom took the lead at the quarter, and was ahead at the half and three-quarter pole, but coming down the home stretch Charmer pressed him so hard that he lost his feet, and the heat, by about two lengths. Charmer's heat in 2:41. It was one of the most beautiful heats of the day, and was a square victory for the mare.

FOURTH HEAT.

By the time the last heat of the free-for-all was finished it was so dark that the judges concluded to declare the 2:33 race off, and so stated. The horses and drivers, however, were out and insisted upon finishing the race. The few persons who had bought pools upon it also clamored for its conclusion, and the judges therefore decided to send out field judges and have it finished. It was too dark to see the horses, except as they passed the stand. On the first round Sleepy Tom was fully three lengths ahead. Nothing more was seen of them until they were near the line again, when it was discovered that Charmer had made up the lost space and was leading by a head. She passed under the line a half length in the lead, in 2:51.

SUMMARY.

A recapitulation of the free-for-all is as follows:

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Brother Jonathan | 2 | 1 | 1 | 1 |
| John B. | 1 | 2 | 2 | 1 |
| Rival | 3 | 3 | 3 | 4 |
| Lady H | 4 | 4 | 4 | 3 |

Time—2:34; 2:34; 2:39; 2:38.

Of the 2:33 class trot the summary is:

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Charmer | 1 | 2 | 1 | 1 |
| Sleepy Tom | 2 | 1 | 2 | 2 |
| Davy | 3 | 3 | 3 | 3 |

Time—2:44; 2:43; 2:41; 2:51.

The track, as may be supposed, was both heavy and slippery. The time made is, therefore, exceedingly good, especially when it is remembered that the wind was blowing almost a hurricane all the time. Lady H., herself, who has a record of 2:27, was speeded on the same track in 2:26, yet she couldn't begin to make it yesterday in 40.

These races will probably be the last that will take place on the track this year.

The purses trotted for yesterday were: For the free-for-all, $300, $150 to the first, $100 to the second, and $50 to the third. For the 2:33, $200; $125 to the first, $50 to the second, and $25 to the third.

LOW RATE
TO
CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION
BY
BALTIMORE & OHIO RAILROAD.

By reference to our advertising columns, our readers will see that the old reliable B. & O. R. R. have again reduced the fare to Philadelphia and back to Seven Dollars. Children under twelve years of age half fare. This is the only direct route to Washington City, and holders of tickets can stop off at Washington or Baltimore. The Centennial Exhibition will soon close, and we advise our readers to take advantage of this offer.

The Turkish Bath.

The Wallingford Turkish Bath was started to fight the cold. The results of the battle are thus summed up by the Social list: "As evidence that the 'fight' was not a sham, we can give statistics, showing that at least three hundred cases of chills and fever have been treated during the past year, to say nothing of the hundreds of cases of rheumatism and other ills too numerous to mention, and in every instance the disease has yielded to the treatment when faithfully applied." General satisfaction is expressed with the manner in which this celebrated bath is now given at 80 Diamond street.

Ladies—Take Notice—Gentlemen.

We call your special attention to a list of prices for good first class Pianos, offered by Mr. S. Hamilton, in another column of this paper. The inducements are certainly the most remarkable that we have ever seen offered for such fine instruments, and would advise our readers to cut it out and call on Mr. Hamilton at once.

Replenish Your Wardrobe.

Which you can do satisfactorily, at very little cost, at the popular merchant tailoring house of Bleakly & Kunz, No. 70 Smithfield street.

Walnut Candy.

Those who have a sweet tooth should not fail to purchase a supply of that delicious Walnut Candy at Klader Blair's, Fifth avenue.

The Eagle Shoe Store,
85 Smithfield street,

BREVITIES.

····The smoke stacks at the new pumping works are being rapidly pushed to completion, and will be done by December.

····Mary Welsh was sent to the Workhouse for ninety days by Mayor Phillips, last evening, for disorderly conduct.

····Thomas White residing on Centre avenue, took anover dose of laudanum about three o'clock yesterday morning. He was still living at last accounts.

····The Allegheny Committee on Wooden Buildings last evening granted the petition of Georges Keyser, for permission to erect a frame stable on Lake street.

····Captain Fred. Dippold, Col. J. P. Kramer, J. B. Smith and John Thompson, of the Kankakee Sporting Club, have gone to Kankakee Lake, Illinois, for a thirty day hunt.

····"Bull" White and one of his pals are accused by Wm. Peterson, a resident of Butler, of robbing him of $17 and a revolver, in this city Thursday night. Bull has not been arrested.

····While new telegraph poles were being erected on Liberty street yesterday, three old poles broke down. One struck and smashed a window of the building occupied by Lehman Bros.

····President Grant and wife previous to their departure from Washington, Pa., paid a visit on Wednesday evening to the Female College at that place. The building was handsomely decorated in their honor.

····The Mayor yesterday returned to Controller Snodgrass, with his signature attached, the $1,000 Compromise Bond already referred to, "Compromise Railroad Bond" having been written alongside of the words "Blank Road."

····Frank Clark, of Mt. Pleasant, Westmoreland county, was instantly killed near Turkey City, in the oil regions, on Wednesday, by being struck on the side of the head with a lever. He leaves a wife and two children at Mt. Pleasant.

····A slight fire in the second story of H. & J. Landis' tobacco factory, at the corner of Madison avenue and Virgin alley, Allegheny, was the cause of an alarm from box 51 at twenty minutes before ten o'clock last night. No damage was done.

····Mrs. Sarah Ann Vance, widow of Col. Jos. Vance, of the Ninety-sixth Ohio, died at Mt. Vernon, Ohio, last week from injuries received in falling down stairs. She was the oldest daughter of Dr. John White, for many years a prominent physician of Washington county, Penn'a.

····Ella Bareger arrived in Allegheny yesterday from Jefferson county, Indiana, in search of her sister, Mrs Ettie Reynolds, who resides somewhere in this vicinity. As she was unable find her sister, and did not have any money to stop at a hotel, she was sent to the Poor Farm by Clerk McGonnigle.

····Mrs. Alexander Morrison, of McConnell's Mills, in Peters township, Washington county, died on Monday morning from the effects of two teaspoonfuls of Paris green, taken by her on Sunday night with suicidal intent. She was about thirty years of age, had two children and had been married eleven years.

····Mrs. Andrew Seidel was fatally burned at Altoona on Thursday evening by the explosion of a lamp. She ran out into the garden, where her husband was at work, and he, in his efforts to extinguish the flames, was badly burned on the hands and arms, and some of the neighbors, who had come to Mrs. Seidel's assistance, were also injured, but not seriously.

····Mr. Thomas Scott, son of John Scott, Esq., President of the Allegheny Valley railroad, died on Thursday morning at his father's residence, on Larimer avenue, in the East End, from the effect of consumption, produced by a cold contracted about a year ago. Deceased was a member of the firm of Scott & Gisel, grain merchants of Penn avenue. He was in the Twenty-fourth year of his age.

····Father Appel, pastor of St. Boniface's Catholic church, at Erie, has been held for trial at court for assault and battery in twice slapping Mary Stoessel on the cheek because she would not take a front seat in church. Mary, being modest, preferred a back seat, but in expressing her preference she was rather boisterous, and insulted her pastor, who acknowledged that he had struck her.

····The Canonsburg Herald says: "The milk business in this section has had something of a back set, owing to the failure of the Pittsburgh & Ohio Milk Company, to whom many of our dairymen shipped their milk. The unpaid bills range from $25 to $400, and will aggregate $2,000 in this township, who is the heaviest loser, has become disgusted with the business and is selling off his cows, having already disposed of eighteen of them."

····We have received a copy of a guide to the places of interest along the route of the Allegheny Valley Railroad, together with the railroads connecting through to Niagara Falls. It is a very neatly gotten up "guide," and the sketches of towns, picturesque scenery and places of note are quite readable. This route is one of the most romantic and beautiful of any in the country, and tourists will find a trip over it a source of exquisite pleasure. Among the prominent places described are Parker City, Oil City, Titusville, Tidioute, Mayville, Chautauqua Lake, the Oil regions throughout, Brocton and Niagara. This "guide" can be had at the hands of the polite traveler over the road, as it gives in condensed statement information that will enable the tourist to take a double pleasure in the sights which will come under his notice.

····The establishment of waiter girl saloons in the city has, it seems, had a bad effect upon the saloon-keepers who claim to do a legitimate business, that is, sell beer on its own merits, and who do not resort to such meretricious artifices to attract custom as females of questionable repute. The dealers in the suburban and up-town localities allege that the waiter girl concerns are proving the death of reputable establishments, and bewailing their loss in the decline of weak human nature, that it should be so easily overcome by crinoline. To equalize trade as nearly as possible, if not the profits, many small saloons dispensing beer at the rate of two or three cents a glass, or two for five cents. This has proved effective enough to make the extensive proprietors petition the brewers to advance the price of beer a dollar a keg, but as the winter is approaching, when the consumption of the article decreases, the brewers find it bad policy to accede to any such request, and so the matter now rests.

THE LATE $500,000 FAILURE!!;

Failure of the Great Clothing Millionaire.

On Broadway, New York, one of the largest Clothing Houses in the world, have effected a settlement at a certain per cent. on the dollar. Mr. Lovering, the assignee, negotiated with Mr. Tobias, last week while in New York, to consign a part of the stock to him, which must be sold to compromise with the creditors. The stock comprises Men and Boys' Clothing, and is ordered to be sold at the following prices. All of the latest Broadway styles:

200 Overcoats at $3 75.
250 Overcoats at $4 50.
325 Overcoats at $5 50.
225 Fine Overcoats at $7 50.
250 Fine Beaver Overcoats at $10 50.
150 Union Cassimere Pants at $1 50.

100 Business Coats at $3 25.
300 Wool Pants at $1 25.
500 White Shirts at 75 cents.
300 Drawers and Overshirts at 25 cents.

I will also sell one complete Suit, one Overcoat and one Pair working Pants, all for $15—good goods.

A fine stock of piece goods, Overcoatings and Suitings, for custom work.

All the above goods are of the latest styles. Call and see them before you buy elsewhere.

BIG 13, SIXTH STREET.

Styles in Hats.

Among the most difficult articles of dress a man has to buy, the hat takes rank. Anything unlike the old one makes you feel odd, and as every one naturally desires a change, it is difficult to reconcile ourselves to the appearance caused by the new. This year we are fortunate in having a large majority of the styles in soft, so as to give comfort and convenience along with styles. Fleming & Ogleves, who are among the foremost of the tailorers for the public, have in stock at their salesroom, 139 Wood street, a large line of both soft and stiff felt goods, in all the new shapes and at various prices. Grades to suit the times. Also, the very finest quality of beaver. These gentlemen are also agents for Messrs. Dunlap & Co.'s Fifth avenue Silk Hat, a full notice of which we have given before, and whose popularity is too well known for comment. We advise all who desire a good, stylish hat, at a reasonable price, to call on these gentlemen at 139 Wood street.

Workingmen to the Centennial.

The Baltimore & Ohio railroad will, next week, run two excursion trains to Philadelphia more especially for the benefit of workingmen who have not a large surplus of money to expend. The fare is se
